THREE SOLDIERS LOSE LIVES IN CALIFORNIA OIL BLAZE

FLAMES CREATING HAVOC IN MONTEREY

Cavalrymen of Troop C, Eleventh U. S. Cavalry, Lose Their Lives, Five Missing And Residential Section Is Threatened

LOSS RUNS INTO MILLIONS

Burning Sheet of Oil, 500 Feet Square, Drifted Over the Bay Toward the Million Dollar Estate of Mrs. L. S. Murray, One of the City's Show Places

Monterey, Cal., Sept. 15—Three soldiers of Troop C, 11th U. S. Cavalry ,were burned to death and five others were missing in a terrific oil fire which was devouring the fashionable residential sections of Monterey early today.

Flaming oil from tanks of the Standard Oil and Associated Oil Companies on the hillside above the bay which were struck by lighting Sunday afternoon, drifted over the inlet, threatening property valued in millions.

Homes of eight wealthy residents of the new colony on the shore had been destroyed by the spreading fire, which was beyond control of fire companies from surrounding towns and troops from Presidio which were ordered out for emergency duty. All houses within two blocks of roaring inferno were vacated.

A burning sheet of oil, 50 feet square, drifted over the bay towards the million dollar estate of Mrs. L. S. Murray, one of Monterey's show places. A pall of thick, pungent black smoke hung over the city and spread for miles out at sea.

Before the midnight the damage already caused by the flaming oil was placed at more than $1,000,000.

The conflagration started during a freak electrical storm when a bolt of lightning touched off one of the crude oil tanks of the Associated Company. Burning fuel spread rapidly, igniting other tanks.

One of these exploded, hurling roaring sheets of oil over fire fighters including troopers from the Presidio. Two of those killed were identified as A. D. Boleo and S. S. Peterson.

Six tanks with a capacity of more than 5,200 barrels were quickly afire. Canneries of the Fuston and Gross and the Pacific Fish Companies were destroyed.

Then streams of burning oil, incinerating everything in their path, flowed down hill to the bay and spread over the surface, attacking the residential section across the waters.

Residents of shore homes hastily gathered what belongings they could and fled. Ambulances, nurses and doctors were sent from surrounding towns.

John Petokey of Monongahela Fatally Injured After Or During a Quarrel With John Tomko, Monongahela, And Mike Laskody

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Whether Foregoing Were Responsible For Hurts Causing Petokey's Passing, Will Have to Be Determined By a Coroner's Jury

Constable Ben Gibson of Monongahela placed in the county jail on Saturday, John Tomko, 503 Main street, Monongahela, and Mike Laskody, of Bunola who are charged with the murder, pending an investigation into the death of John Potokey, aged 23, 701 Railroad street, Monongahela. Tomko is 20 years old and Laskody is also 20 years of age.

Potokey was fatally injured just after or during a quarrel with Tomko and Laskody. Whether or not the two men were responsible for the hurts which caused his death, will have to be determinedd by a coroner's jury.

Rupture of an intestine caused Potokey's death. This is thought to have been received when he started to run after he had been struck several blows by Tomko and Laskody when he was caught trying to force his attentions on Mrs. Mary Tomko, wife of John Tomko, and sister of Laskody. Potokey's attention had been so pronounced that Tomko had mentioned them to his wife.

On last Thursday, Potokey, who Mrs. Tomko charges, following her wherever she went, forcing himself upon her against her wishes, was found with her in her automobile, which had been stopped near Palmer park, between Monongahela and Donora. Suspicious when she was absent from her home longer than she expected to be, Tomko in company with her brother, started in search of her.

When they came upon Potokey and Mrs. Tomko they admitted they handled Potokey roughly and struck him several blows with their fists. When they released him, he started to run and, dashing across the road, he crashed into an automobile. It is thought likely that the ruptured intestine, which an autopsy showed was the cause of death, was the result of his running into the standing machine with great force.

Potokey became ill on Friday following the trouble near Palmer park and on Saturday died at his boarding house, 701 Railroad street, Monongahela. Tomko and Laskody were arrested by Chief of Police Burnsworth and Gibson. Chief County Detective W. B. Dinsmore was notified and conducted an investigation yesterday. Mrs. Tomko was taken into custody as a witness and released under bail. They were arraigned before Alderman R. L. Elwood of Monongahela.

ENGLAND IN SECOND PLACE

In his ambling essay in the September Atlantic Monthly, A. Edward Newton finds some interesting things to say about the new feeling toward America in England since the former began to forge ahead in wealth and influence, and particularly after the war, during which "we became enormously rich and the English ghastly poor." Mr. Newton loves England and frequently writes about London con amore. He says that forty years ago his one ambition was to make money enough to retire and spend his declining years in England, but now he "would not accept as a gift" any mansion on the Thames or elsewhere if he had to make it his home. "I am not wanted there," he says; "few Americans are." After being the richest and most powerful people on earth for three centuries, it is acutely painful for the English to yield the primacy to another nation, and this inevitably affects their attitude toward the people of that nation, particularly the newly enriched and socially aggressive.

We read that Americans "became disliked" after they occupied some of the finest mansions in London and some of the most historic castles in the country," buying up the rare art treasures right and left. Some of these Americans were "loud, vulgar and ignorant as well as rich: more and more they came, and more and more they flaunted their wealth." What the English do not want is to have Americans come and sit down on them, taking up their town and country houses and trying to get into their most exclusive clubs. The English "envy us our wealth and our aloofness from the troubles of Europe and envy is not a good foundation for friendship." Mr. Newton heard one Englishman say that even in sport Americans win by "that low cunning which is so characteristic." But the English read and are much pleased with an American book, the Letters of Walter H. Page, "as well they may, for they are a tribute to the greatness of England." Mr. Newton could have added that nothing is more tragic than real greatness on the verge of decline and no generous-minded American remembering all that England has done for the world, can fail of either sympathy or regret.

THE OFFICE CAT

Often life is just what our creditors make it.

Some fellows imagine when they go away they leave a vacancy, but nine times out of ten they take it with them.

The American man is the greatest institution of this country. And, believe me, there is no other country in the world which produces such shoes, such rocking chairs, such bathtubs, such green corn, such watermelons, and such ideal husbands.

The cost of getting a divorce may depend on how much your good name is worth.

It has been definitely decided that the occupation of a telephone girl is neither a business nor a profession, but a calling.

When the bride promises to obey, she waives her rights, but it isn't a permanent waive.

REVENGE.

A lovely girl was Dorothy—
Quite so!
And being much entranced by all her charms,
I wished to kiss her, hold her in my arms—
You know!
I first tried in a taxicab—
Said she:
Oh, everybody'll see us, I'm afraid:
I hardly relish petting on parade—
D'you see?
At her house party next I tried—
Said she:
Somebody'll surely see us, I'm afraid;
The butler might come in, or else the maid—
D'you see?
In the garden I tried once more—
Said she:
Somebody else might see us, I'm afraid;
We have strayed—
D'you see?
And then one night we drove quite far—
And fast!
We found at length a most secluded spot,
And there we stopped—my chance I'd got—at last!
And was the girlie fearful still?—
Oh, no!
She softly, sweetly whispered in my ear:
Now is the time, you dear, no one is near—
Let's go!
She lifted up appealing eyes—to me!
Said I: Some one will see us, I'm afraid;
To the Man in the Moon we're quite displayed—
D'you see?

Free Sparring Exhibition Tomorrow Afternoon, By Cuddy DeMarco At The Base Ball Park Here

Meets Johnny Horvath Thursday Night at Ball Park.

All arrangements for the boxing show to be held by the athletic committee of the Charleroi Elks at the Charleroi Baseball park on Thursday night of this week, are complete.

The card is the best that has ever been arranged here and the fans of the Monongahela valley will be given an opportunity to see Cuddy DeMarco in action before he leaves for the East, where he will get the hardest test of his ring career when he meets Johnny Dundee to determine who the man will be to meet Benny Leonard for the championship.

Cuddy has kept in strict training since his last fight with Kid Sullivan. The local flash has been working out with several local fighters on Buchanan's farm, just outside of Charleroi. He has been working faithfully, cutting down trees, peeling bark, and other kinds of farm work of the hardest kind, and as a result is in the best condition of his career.

The management has found it necessary to make a change in Cuddy's opponent for the local show. Instead of Frankie Stellmack of Cleveland, Johnny Horvath of Mansfield, Ohio, will be the opponent. Stellmack had an engagement at Cleveland on Saturday night which had to be postponed on account of rain, and the state boxing commission provides that five days must be used up between fights so it was impossible for the Cleveland boy to appear here, and Horvath was secured in his stead.

DeMarco has fought Horvath on two different occasions, and the last time they met DeMarco got the decision, but the fans thought that Horvath should have had a draw, and this is the first opportunity the two boys have had to settle the matter.

The balance of the card is classy. In the semi-final Judy Maraz of Charleroi will meet Eddie Bayne of Verona. These two boys also have an argument to settle. Davy Davies, of Roscoe, a brother of the sensational little fighter, Willie Davies, will meet "Pug" Phillips of Charleroi, and the opener will be a hummer, when "Kid" Dudley, colored light heavyweight champion of Ohio, will meet Tommy O'Mara of Donora. This colored boy has been trying to get started in this vicinity for some time and this fight promises some real action.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Cuddy DeMarco will be on the business end of a real novelty, when he will give a sparring exhibition at the baseball park. He will have as his sparring partners, Johnny Muraz, "Boss" Biesenkamp, and "Pug" Phillips. This exhibition will be free to all and DeMarco will show the fine points of boxing in all its details. The regular ring will be in shape for the exhibition, there will be a regular referee, and the boys will go through their stunts in the regular way. An invitation is extended to the public to attend this exhibition.

CUDDY DEMARCO

Will give a free boxing exhibition tomorrow at 3:30 at the Baseball Park.

THIS WEEK WILL DECIDE PENNANT IN BIG LEAGUES

Boston, Sept. 14—The Pirates lost valuable ground to their Greater New York rivals as they rested in Boston yesterday. The Giants and Dodgers each rang up a victory and therefore gained half of a full game on the third-place Buccos. The Giants are three games ahead of Pittsburgh, while the McKechnie entry is two games in the rear of the Dodgers.

The Pirates are favored in the number of games remaining on their schedule. The Buccos have lost only one more game than have the Giants, while the Dodgers have actually lost one more battle than the number charged to the Pittsburgers.

In the event of a run of victories by the Bucs this condition would be of great held to the cause. The Pirates have 17 more games to run off to complete the card.

The Giants have 13 still to play. As the Dodgers have played all but 11 games on their schedule it is obvious that Robbie's club will have to step out to grab the honors.

The Pirates spent their off-day in various ways. Five or six of the players went down to Gloucester to cruise about with Stauffy McInnis who resides in that sea-faring place. Stuffy is a wonderful host, according to Pirates who have been at McInnis' home on other trips.

The Charleroi Homing club held its second young bird race from Coshocton, O. It was one of the most closely contested races that the club has ever had, there being only one-half yard difference between the first bird and the second. "Little Ahead," from the loft of John Vegro, was first and "Dependable," from the loft of Armorx Michaux, was second. The next race will be from Newark, Ohio. Summaries:

Vegro, 1188.45; Michaux, 1188.52; Bayens, 1132.27; Spielman, 1102.45; Arrigo, 1056.30; Paragana, 1034.59; McGuire, 1031.60.

PIRATES GET BACKSTOP FROM BIRMINGHAM

Roy Spencer, catcher for the Birmingham Club of the Southern Association, has been purchased by the Pirates, Treasurer Sam Dreyfuss announced last night. He will report to the local club for training next spring.

Spencer has twice had trials in the major leagues, both with the Detroit Tigers—in 1922 and 1923. After his first attempt to get into fast company he was shipped to Omaha and the following year the Tigers sent him to Augusta.

Spencer is a righthand batter, aged 24 years and weighs 165 pounds. He is five feet, 10½ inches tall. In the 99 games he has caught for Birmingham this season, he has batted for an average of .307 and included in his hits 15 doubles and six triples.

ELKS BOXING SHOW TO HAVE OPPOSITION THURSDAY NIGHT

There will be no fight in McKeesport tonight. This was the word announced last night by Promoters McGuire and Davenport. Dick Conlin of Altoona, who wah to have met Jimmy Brady of Detroit sent word that he had sprained his ankle while training and would be unable to appear. It was announced that an effort will be made to find a substitute for Conlin and the show will be put back until Thursday night of this week.

Efforts were made by the McKeesport management to secure Young Sailor at Charleroi to sub for Conlin, but the local boy had not been in training for the past week and refused to go into the ring out of condition.

SECOND GAME IS TO BE PLAYED THIS EVENING

The second game of the series between the Cudahy "Butchers" and the Rieck-McJunkin "Ice Cream" manufacturers will be played this evening at the Charleroi Baseball park at 5 o'clock.

The "Butchers" say this will end the series of the proposed three games, as they won the first one; the "Ice Cream" manufacturers say they are out to even the series; and at any rate the adherents of both clubs promise to be out in full force, and there is no little interest being manifested

MONESSEN LOOKING FORWARD TO BIG FOOTBALL YEAR

The Monessen scholastic football season will open in two weeks with the high school team trying conclusions with Scottdale, the game being scheduled at Scottdale.

Coach Shields is favored with a wealth of material for this season, no less than 40 candidates having appeared for practice and included in the number are many veterans from last year's squad. Following their weeks in training camp the boys returned home only to settle down to a hard grind at Page Park each evening and, barring any unforseen accidents, all should be in the pink of condition for the opening contest.

This season the second team will be given an opportunity to get into action as a short schedule is being arranged with the smaller schools, and on which occasions the second string men will be used as their opponents.

The schedule for the varsity is as follows:

Saturday, September 27—Scottdale away.
Saturday, October 4—California, away.
Friday, October 10— McKeesport, away.
Saturday, October 18—Charleroi at home.
Saturday, October 25—Donora at home.
Saturday, November 1—Monongahela, away.
Saturday, November 8— Connellsville, at home.
Friday, November 14—West Newton, at home.
Friday, November 21—Open date, at home.
Thanksgiving day — Washington, away.

Several changes have been made in the schedule this year, the Charleroi game having been moved forward in order that fans from the valley may attend the Pitt-W. & J. contest and not miss the valley classic.

MIGHTS BOOK STORE

-to keep them air-tight

ROW on row of beautifully packed jars! What a gratifying show they make on your storeroom shelves.

But what assurance have you that your jar rubbers will safeguard them through the weeks and months to come?

Every jar rubber must do two important things if it is to make an air-tight seal. It must first stretch and then it must "set."

It must stretch enough to pass easily over the neck of the jar. Too much stretch robs it of the ability to snap back into place—to "set."

Only if the rubber will "set" firmly can you be sure of a permanent air-tight seal.

Today you can buy jar rubbers already tested for stretch and "set." For months in its own great laboratories the United States Rubber Company worked to develop a superior jar rubber and in its "U.S." brand it offers you rubbers that meet the most rigid test.

Ask your dealer for "U.S." Jar Rubbers—tested to keep your pack safe. In red and white rubber, plain or double-lipped.

"WOMAN IN BLACK" HELD, CHARGED WITH LIGHTING 5 FIRES

New York, Sept. 1'—A "woman in black," who hurried about the old district known as "Hell's Kitchen," lighting five fires within an hour and a half Sunday, was held for observation today charged with arson.

To Chief Fire Marshal Brody, the woman, who gave her name as Jennie Latimer, said she had 'followed a strange impulse and meant no harm.

The fires were set in the vicinity of a church crowded with worshipers. Residents were panic stricken as one alarm followed another. At one place, the woman fired a lace curtain, blowing from an open window. At another she set fire to a baby carriage. The series of fires caused excitement and drew a large crowd but the total damage was slight. The woman's sister said the pyromaniac had been suffering from a mental disorder for some weeks.

Produced by Dimitri Buchowetzki, who directed "Men," the star's new vehicle is at once the most dramatic and most entertaining of all the pictures in which she has appeared.

Maj.-Gen. John L. Hines Takes Up Official Duties Laid Down By Pershing

Washington, Sept. 15—Major General John L. Hines, who until Saturday was deputy chief of staff, today took over the duties of chief of staff of the United States army, relinquished by General Pershing, retired.

Brig. Gen. Dennis E. Nolan, former assistant chief of staff, becomes deputy chief of staff, taking the vacancy by Hines's promotion.

With these changes, the army went back to the old system in force before the war, where the chief of staff was the actual head of the army, with the rank of Major General.

Hines has a gallant record for service. Born at White Sulphur Springs W. Va., in 1868, he entered West Point and g raduated in 1801, being commissioned in the second cavalry. He fought in the Spanish-American war and in the Philippine insurection. In the world war he commanded the first infantry brigade, receiving both the D. S. C. and the D. S. M. for his services.

S. S. Workers Are To Meet In Washington October 8, 9, And 10

The 32nd annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association will be held in Washington, October 8, 9 and 10. The First Presbyterian church will be the convention church, with the First Methodist Episcopal and First United Presbyterian churches, the college gymnasium and perhaps other chuches used for the various group and division meetings and conferences.

At a recent meeting of the various committee chairmen the plans for the convention, so far as they are in the hands of Washington schools, were thoroughly canvassed. Attorney Lloyd O. Hart is chairman of the general committee, with these subcommittee chairman: Entertainment, Rev. C. L. McKee; buildings, J. W. Moninger; decorations, A. L. Clutter; exhibits, Boyd Sharp; music, Howard L. Christman; publicity, Minor H. Day; ushers, Henry Bigler; finance, Lee K. Ward; registration, Carson Campbell; pageant, Blaine Saltzer.

Perhaps the most important of these committees is that on entertainment of which Rev. C. L. McKee is the chairman. It is difficult to make an estimate on the probable attendance on this state gathering of Sunday school forces. Connected in some way with the convention there are about 200 state workers. It is not impossible that the convention may take to Washington that week 2,000 people.

FUNERAL IS HELD TODAY

Alderman DeWitt C. Parkinson, who died in Monongahela on Friday last, was born July 7, 1864, a son of the late John and Mary Parkinson, descendants of the original settlers of Parkinson Ferry, now Monongahela. On December 2, 1886, he was united in marriage with Theresa Behanna, daughter of the late David and Mary Behanna of Monongahela. To this union five children were born, two daughters and three sons, Mrs. W. H. Parkinson, Mrs. W. D. Kahl, Dewitt C. Jr., James R., and J. Edward Parkinson. He leaves 12 grandchildren, one grandchild, Martha Baldwin, residing at home.

Mr. Parkinson was a member of the St. Paul Episcopal church, of B. P. O. Elks. No. 455, and the Americus club of Pittsburgh.

In 1904, under the Republican administration, of which party he was an ardent member, Mr. Parkinson was appointed postmaster of Monongahela and most efficiently served in this office for 13 years. He was later appointed a county detective and it was while serving this official duty in the hunt for two escaped murderers that his feet became frozen, which was the ultimate cause of his death. He suffered for years before amputation became necessary a few weeks ago.

Mr. Parkinson at the time of his death was alderman of the First ward. He was a man who, no matter what office he held, was always courteous, and in rendering decisions gave justice to all and to all alike. He was a man that retained his friends and they were as true to him as he to them.

For many years Mr. Parkinson was a dominating figure in politics in the Monongahela valley.

Funeral services were to be held today at 2 o'clock in charge of Rev. W. F. Bayle of the St. Paul Episcopal church. Interment in Monongahela cemetery.

TWO ARE KILLED IN SALOON FIGHT

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 15.—Sam "Come Clean" Son, was being hunted by every police agency in Northeastern Pennsylvania today in connection with a free-for-all fight in a Pittston saloon which ended in two deaths.

Tony Pieatz, 40, was shot and instantly killed, while Joseph Marianca, 40, died early today of stab wounds received in the brawl.

Marianca was estranged from his wife, Son's sister, and had beaten her, according to the police. Son approached Marianca in the saloon Saturday night and remonstrated with him. The quarrel continued through many rounds of "moonshine," police said, and finally broke out suddenly with the flashing of knives and the crack of pistols which invoived the entire crowd in the affray.
